

ABSTRACT

Firman Freaddy Busroh, "Government Policy in Resolving Conflict Between Agricultural Plantation Company With the Community". This dissertation under the guidance of Prof. Faisal Santiago, SH.MM as promoter and Prof.H.Koesparmono Irsan, SH. SIK, MH, MM, MBA, as Ko.Promotor.

Problems in this dissertation, (a) Why agrarian conflicts often arise between plantation companies and the public? (b) How does government policy in resolving agrarian conflicts between plantation companies and the community? (c) How is the ideal model to resolve the agrarian conflict between plantation companies and the public.

In solving the problem, this research emphasis on the research methods of normative and empirical legal research by doing a review of the legal norms applicable to a particular situation and examine the empirical study, so this study can be categorized as an empirical legal research.

Background, related to the number of disputes agraria / land, between plantation companies and the community, especially the issue of agrarian / land which gave rise to such anarchic events that occurred in the village of River Sodong, Mesuji Subdistrict, Ogan Ogan Ilir (OKI) province of South Sumatra Province. South Sumatra and Lampung Tengah Mesuji district, Prov. Lampung, perhaps a reflection of the failure of law enforcement that should be resolved across sectors. For the central and local governments need to formulate policies agrarian dispute resolution more permanent, comprehensive, effective and transparent so that the dispute be resolved immediately. Results of this study was 1..Faktor cause of the dispute, namely: social inequality, disharmony between plantation area with the surrounding community environment, the slow pace of law enforcement and the tendency of an injustice done to the community. 2. The dispute resolution policy carried out through the efforts of cross sektoran through non-litigation approach to disputes over land rights and way of litigation for cases pidananya.3.Model Ideal to consider the concept of Social Justice in the Model Framework Kebijakan Land Law and Concept of Welfare the Land Law Policy Framework could be an option to take into consideration the will of the constitution that aspires just and prosperous society and prosperous.