

ABSTRACT

Suherdiman, NIM : 21730395 with the dissertation title "LEGAL CONSTRUCTION OF THE AUTHORITY OF ELECTRONIC SIGNATURE IN NOTARY DEEDS BY THE PARTIES", This dissertation was under the guidance of Prof. Dr. H. Faisal Santiago, S.H., M.M, as Promoter and Dr. Otong Rosadi, S.H., M.H, as Ko. Promoter.

Notaries in carrying out their duties as public officials appointed by the State in this case the implementation in office can work in accordance with applicable laws and regulations, namely Law of the Republic of Indonesia Number 2 of 2014 concerning the office of Notary has not regulated the validity of electronic signatures and electronic signatures are felt in the business world with world-shaking events in this case Covid 19 where humans to meet and gather are limited in number.

For business actors in running the wheels of business, notary services are needed in terms of making agreements, agreements and others. Whereas for stamps, electronic stamps have also been applied in accordance with the Law of the Republic of Indonesia Number 10 of 2020 regulating the Stamp Duty Law Number 13 of 1985 (e-Materai).

In the Law on Electronic Information and Transactions or Law of the Republic of Indonesia Number 11 of 2008 which regulates information and electronic transactions, or information technology in general.

A digital signature is a mathematical scheme used to prove the authenticity of a digital message or document. This scheme is a guarantee that data and information really come from the right source. Meanwhile, the Law on Information and Electronic Transactions is defined as a signature consisting of electronic information that is attached, associated or related to other electronic information that is used as a verification and authentication tool.

In proving and perfecting authentic evidence, it is necessary for the Notary Office Law to contain rules for electronic signature procedures so that clients in this case have legal certainty if there is a challenge or lawsuit from a deed that is a notary product.

Keywords: Electronic Signature, Legal Construction. Notary .